

Providing the no call list is one of THE best things the state has done. My quality of life is much improved. This should be true for all U.S. citizens.